Mosul Dam Location

Mosul Dam foundation grouting will be very complex. Given the uncertainty with how much the foundation has degraded over the last several years and the lack of complete records on the past drilling and grouting, there are many unknowns that will affect the execution of the work. How the foundation responds to the drilling and grouting will vary not just from hole-to-hole but within a given hole. Dam safety and concerns for construction induced risk must be the highest priority and care must be taken and judgment exercised to insure the measures to improve the foundation don't themselves cause damage.
